SENATOR TILLMAN AT COLUMBIA.

HE TALKS ABOUT POLITICS AND HIS LECTURE.

HE DISCUSSES CAREY COTHRAN LAW AND INQUIRES WHAT HAS BECOME OF PROMISES TO PUT STRIPES ON DISFENSARY LAW
VIOLATORS—OR PROHIBITION AS AGAINST LICENSE—ENJOYS PREACHING WHITE SUPRE-MACY.

Columbia, Sept. 2.—Senator B. R.
Tillman spent today in the city, this being his first visit to Columbia in several months. He came over from his home at Trenton to attend a meeting of a committee of the Clemson College trustees, but as only one other member of the committee was present at the appointed hour, the Senator spent most of the day at the hotel, conversing with friends. Few knew that he was in town, as he arrived home, accompanied by Mrs.
Tillman, only last Friday night from his lecturing tour in the West.

The Senator talked interestingly—he always talks interestingly—and on a variety of subjects to this correspondent today at Wright's Hotel.

"How do you find things in South Carolina, Senator," was asked by the reporter.

Senator Tillman said that he had been working hard on his lecture tour but, said he, "I enjoy preaching the gospel of white supremacy to those miserable ignoramus up North. Yes I get enough out of it to compensate me for the work."

"I find about four fifths of the crowds with me on the race question everywhere I go. The politicians are the ones who oppose my views. I have taken a number of hand primaries and most of them are more unanimous than any I have taken in South Carolina."

"No, I am not permitted to talk politics in my lectures. I am confined to the race question by my contracts, but that is really the only question that divides this country, it has divided the North and South for the last fifty years, and if it wasn't for the negro they could get together."

"Of course, the fight between Tatt and Foraker is the one matter of interest in the West, especially in Ohio.
I haven't got anything to say about that, however, for when I say anything about Foraker it will be where I have him face to face. I challenge him twice to a debate, but he wouldn't accept."

"I have already expressed the opinion about twenty times that Roosevelt wants the nomination for himself.
He is working to bring about a deadlock in the Republican Convention which will result in them turning to Theodore Roosevelt as the one honest man left in the world, then they will ask him to save the country. The nomination will be presented to him on a silver platter."

"Well, you know I have for a long

IT IS BELIEVED THAT OUTRAGES ARE BEGINNING OF WAR OF REVOLT. IN MORE MASSA-CRES THE COSSACKS ARE

ATE THE JEWS.

Odesa, Sept. 3.—A reign of terror prevails here today and defenceless Jews have been massacred on all sides.
Women and children were shot down while kneeling in prayer over the graves of friends and relatives. Hebrew girls were dragged from their homes and seized upon as the prey of the czar's raiders.

This frightful record is believed to be only the beginning of one of the most atrocious attacks ever made by the dreaded "Black Hundred." It is known that the police are acting in league with the Jewish persecutors.
They stood by while women and chil-the deaths of a military officer and four policemen, they started in to follow up an imaginary injury.

It was stated at the time that the officer dropped the bomb, but any pretext was enough.

Firing right and left and gathering strength at every step, the mob killed three and wounded sixty persons before they started for the cemetery.

At every window where a Jew was sitting a gun was levelled. Doors were broken down, windows smashed, goods stolen and women subjected to gross indignities.

In vain did the people call on the police. The police were there, but in active spectators of the scene of pillage and cruelty. Not one raised a hand.

PICKERS SCARCE.

Aiken, S. C., Sept. 3.—Mr. W.
Hamp Brodie, a large and progressive farmer of Kitchings Mill, was in the city yesterday. He told The Chronicle representative that the hot weather had been causing the cotton to open very fast in his section, and that cotton pickers were very scarce. He says that fifty cents per hundred pounds is being paid for picking and even at that high price the pickers could not be secured. He said that if the present weather prevailed for a few weeks cotton picking will soon be over providing the hands can be secured to pick it out.—Augusta Chronicle.

WEEKLY CONCERTS AT AIKEN.

Aiken, S. C., Sept. 3.—The concerts which are being given on each Saturday afternoon have been bringing large crowds to the city on every Saturday. On Saturday the largest crowd that has been in Aiken for some time was here, and heard the concert. The concerts are being furnished by the business men of the city, and is a very popular feature.

NEW MAYOR FOR SA- LUDA.

MR. W. L. DANIEL ELECTED DU- RING HIS ABSENCE.

Saluda, Sept. 3.—Mr. W. L. Daniel was elected mayor of this town yesterday, vice L. M. Crouch, resigned.
It was quite a compliment to Mr.
Daniel, as he was out of town, not a candidate, and was not expecting to be voted for. His friends are urging him to accept the place. He has it under consideration and will likely accede to their requests.

It is extremely dry and dusty. Federal is drying up and cotton is opening rapidly.

LIGHTNING BOLT KILLS SEVEN MEN.

TEN OTHERS INJURED AT BUCKHORN FALLS, N. C.

VICTIMS SOUGHT SHELTER FROM HEAVY STORM, WHEN BUILD- ING WAS STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 4.—Details of the disastrous effect of a lightning stroke at Buckhorn Falls in Chatham county yesterday show that seven men were killed and 10 injured. A heavy storm had forced 50 to 70 men to seek shelter in the cement house of the Buckhorn Falls Power plant.
Lightning struck a big tree back of the house and the tree, splitting, fell over on the building, the stroke instantly killing two white men and five negroes and injuring three whites and seven negroes, all of them residents of this vicinity. All of the victims were employees of the Phoenix Construction company, which has charge of the plant.

WHITE MAN CHASED OUT OF NEWBERRY.

WAS TRYING TO ORGANIZE NEGRO BRICKLAYERS AND PLASTERERS.

MIXUP WITH MAYOR BROWN.

ACTING AS A CITIZEN, THE MAY-OR TOLD FRANK P. GORDON HIS WORK WOULD NOT BE TOLERATED.

Newberry, Sept. 4.—Yesterday a stranger, who registered at one of the local hotels as "Frank P. Gordon, Birmingham, Ala.," accompanied by a well dressed negro, attracted the attention of the police and upon being shadowed it was learned that the two men were here for the purpose of organizing negro bricklayers and plasterers into the International Bricklayers and Plasterers Union.

Mayor Brown upon learning of the white man's business, went to see him in the capacity of a citizen, and not officially to inform him that the citizens of Newberry would not permit a white man to organize negroes in the community. In the interview Gordon intimated that Mr. Brown was a "liar," whereupon the latter proceeded to flog the stranger.

The strange negro was led to the edge of town and invited to take his departure. Gordon was arrested and held in jail in the sum of $25.

At first Gordon represented himself as a "mattress drummer," but afterwards admitted that he had told an untruth. He said that he did this in the town he visited for the purpose of deception, as he did not wish his real business to be known.

When the Columbia train reached here tonight Gordon boarded it, followed by 15 or 16 citizens who desired to "interview" him, but he escaped them by locking himself up in the toilet.

Policeman John Adams, who worked the case up as well as Mayor Brown, have the sympathy of the community for their part in the affair.

It is said that Gordon is en route to Greenwood for the same purpose that he visited Newberry.
The affair created considerable comment here today.

GREAT REVIVAL IN SALUDA.

LARGE CROWDS ATTENDED RE- LIGIOUS EXERCISES CONDUCT- ED IN SALUDA BY THE REV. W. P. B. KINARD.

Saluda, Sept. 3.—The services begun here 10 days ago by Rev. W. P.
B. Kinard of Greenwood county came to a close last night.

It has been a great meeting in many respects. The preaching which for the most part was done by Rev. Mr.
Paul, one of the editors of The Pentostal Herald of Louisville, Ky., was of a very high order. The crowds were immense, numbering often as many as 1,200. The music which Prof.
Landrum the blind pianist at the instrument was marvellously beautiful, while the singing, led by Mr. Curry was most satisfactory and highly enjoyable.

Mr. Paul is yet quite a young man, but he preaches with power. His sermons are at once logical, convincing and inspiring. There is none of the cant and sophistry and sensational about him. His is a message of life, a plea for complete service to the Master.

Rev. W. P. Yarbrough of Leesville, the boy evangelist, was present a portion of the time and assisted in the preaching.

Fifteen Cents Cotton is the minimum price which Mr. E. D. Smith, President of the Southern Cotton Growers Association, says the farmers should take for their product this year. The First National Bank of Batesburg is prepared to lend liberally on cotton stored in the Batesburg Warehouse or the Planters Storage Warehouse in Batesburg.

We have left yet a few more of those excellent cotton and cottonseed calculators, which we will be pleased to present free to the farmers of this section. These books would cost you one dollar, and if they are used properly may save the seller a great many dollars in correcting mistakes.

Remember, that The First National Bank of Batesburg has money to lend on reasonable terms: satisfactory collateral or approved indorsers and pays interest at the rates of 4 and 5 per cent. per annum on deposits.

W. W. Watson, President; Ira C. Carson, Cashier; N. A. Bates, Vice President.

"Well, I've just got home and have seen only a few friends here and there, and don't know what's been going on."

Speaking of prohibition he said:
"You can say I'm for prohibition against any form of license, young man," declared Senator Tillman emphatically.

"I don't know how this Carey-Cottrhan law is working, but I have told the people of the State that if you can't watch one big dispensary and keep out stealing you can't watch thirty of them."

"By the way," said the Senator, turning interrogator, "what's become of those stripes they were going to put on the garters last year? Has anybody been arrested yet? Any warrants sworn out at all? You remember that I said those pre-election promises last year were all humbug.
There was bound to be something rotten where there was so much smell, but they don't seem to be doing anything about it."

It was stated to the Senator that the dispensary winding up commission had held up the claims of a number of whiskey houses to the State dispensary, and that there might be something doing when this commission got the information.

"They might as well look for expenditure in the Atlantic Ocean," was the Senator's comment.

When asked if he thought there would be an effort to pass a State prohibition law next year, he replied that the time might not be ripe then for such a law. "It depends a great deal," said the Senator, "on what the Governor, Mr. Ansel does. If he does not do anything to make himself unpopular he will get a second term, you know."

MARRIED SUNDAY.

On Sunday last at one o'clock at the home of the bride Miss Eva Reynolds was married to Mr. J. A.
Hite. Rev. Macom Garter was the officiating minister. The marriage was a quiet one only the relatives and near friends of the couple being invited.

SALUDA COUNTY MEET.

Saluda, Sept. 4.—The Saluda County Medical association was held here on Monday and was largely attended.
The meeting was made especially interesting because of the discussion of questions of practice and treatment of various diseases and a general interchange of ideas.
